November 7, 1934

Mr. Tommy McCarty,
Principal,
McDowell School
Randolph, Arizona

Dear Sir:

This will acknowledge receipt of your letter of November 5th in which you seek an opinion of the Attorney General as to whether Armistice Day, which falls on Sunday, should be observed on Monday and considered as falling within the "school week."

Please be advised that Section 1727, R. C. A. 1928, as amended by Chapter 28, Session Laws 1929, provides that when a legal holiday falls on a Sunday, the following Monday shall be observed as a holiday.

The Attorney General is of the opinion that Monday, November 12th, should be observed.

Very truly yours,

Attorney General

FHB/GH

Assistant Attorney General
