ARIZONA ATTORNEY GENERAL

March 1, 1939.

Hon. C. J. Carroon,
Member House of Representatives
Phoenix, Arizona.

Dear Sir:

We have considered House Bill No. 258 being an act relating to the licensing and regulation of itinerant merchants. It is the opinion of this office that this bill is in proper form and does not offend any constitutional provision and will be a valid law if passed and approved.

Yours very truly,

JOE CONWAY
Attorney General

ALBERT M. GARCIA
Assistant Attorney General

EARL ANDERSON
Special Assistant
Attorney General
