b

March 17, 1939

Mr. Arthur Palmer,
Navajo County Assessor,
Holbrook, Arizona.

LAW LIBRARY
ARIZONA ATTORNEY GENERAL

Dear Mr. Palmer:

I have before me your letter of March 14, 1939, concerning Chapter 47 Laws of the Regular Session 1939, known as the Lien Sale Law. You ask:

"Will the necessary forms of report be furnished and the schedules be furnished to make the system uniform over the state?"

The law provides for no uniform supervision by any state officer, but leaves the mechanics of the execution of the law to the various county officers.

You next ask:

"Is it mandatory that we prepare to comply until it has been determined constitutional?"

Inasmuch as the law is constitutional and in effect until it is declared unconstitutional by the Supreme Court of Arizona, it is mandatory upon all county assessors to comply with the law beginning with its effective date.

Very truly yours,

JOE CONWAY,
Attorney General

W. L. POLLEY,
Assistant Attorney General

EARL ANDERSON,
Special Assistant
Attorney General

39-121