May all of the victims of the events of January 8, Gabby, her family and staff, Tucson and our country continue to transform tragedy into new strength.
May all who are struggling experience love.
May we wake up to our best selves and take daily actions towards our dreams.

"Do not let what you cannot do interfere with what you can do."

John Wooden

Paper cranes represent prayers for continuous healing.

May the positive thoughts and expressions of good-ness everywhere help heal Gabby and all who need healing.