Border ride 2008 with Kelly-Glenn Kimbro

Mark & Gabby -

You two are living proof that our destinies are meant to be. Your life's crossed at just the right times, each finding a soul mate in one another. Gabby, I know your healing is a tough mission, but "Commander" Kelly has taken charge and you diffinately have the 'right stuff' to be his crew. Gabby, Mark is doing a fine job caring for others as well as you, at this time.

Your future together has been blessed now with so many prayers that the two seperate careers you once had are clearly united as one; you both shine as brightly as the stars and together you have the ability to lead the nation in acts of service and compassion.
