To The families,

Our heartfelt condolences for your loss. We have a home in Arizona Sky Village near Portal and appreciate the risks that were taken during the fires that passed near our region in times past. For this to happen while being there for others breaks our hearts. We will remember them and you for these sacrifices

Ying & Roy Gravel