Sisters & Brothers in Emergency Services, July '13

It is with a very heavy heart that we convey our sincere condolences to the families, co-workers and friends of God's newest Angels. Words cannot express the sorrow that is felt by all across the U.S., north America and the entire Emergency Services family. Please accept our humble condolences in this terrible time of tragedy. Our thoughts and prayers are with you & the families of these heros. God bless...

Daniel Garvin - EMT-P
Commander - Urgences Santé Honour Guard
Montréal, Québec, Canada