Dear Mr. Fraijo,

The tragedy of the Yarnell Fire hit very close to home. In 1996 the Prineville (Oregon) Hotshots were caught in a fire on a Colorado Mountain. You probably remember what a horrible loss of lives that was.

A memorial to those hot-shots has been built in my hometown of Prineville, Oregon. It is in a lovely city park.

I'm enclosing a few photos of the memorial in case you could use some of the ideas.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Sandra Hammond
