I wish I could send so much more but my husband's disability check supports my daughter's family also.

Please know that along with the check I send my deepest condolences, my love and my prayers for strength and healing.

Pat K Mann