I lived in Prescott 4 years attending school. I came to love the town and its residents. As part of a family that has produced four generations of wildland firefighters, I know the courage and dedication of these 19 fallen men, but can't imagine the suffering of their families. I hope this donation can help make at least some things easier for them.

My deepest Condolences,

Carla Roybal