Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your families on your tragic loss. Fire fighters risk everything every time they answer the call of a fire. We know, my husband is a part-paid and a volunteer fire fighter. We just wanted to extend a word of appreciation for these fine people and to condolences for their families.

God bless you in your memories –

Bart and Sheila Jennings

thirty-one