May the prayers and love from all over the country surround you as you mourn the loss of these firefighters.

We pray for all the firefighters who continue to battle this fire and all fires.

Peace and strength to your families,

Bruce and Kay Sterman