

April 6, 1933

Mr. A. J. Eddy
Deputy County Attorney
Yuma, Arizona

Dear Sir:

In reply to your letter of March 30th, 1933, requesting my opinion as to whether or not counties may license and regulate the sale of spirituous liquors, I advise, in my opinion, that counties may not license or regulate the sale of spirituous liquor. Counties have such power only when expressly given, or where, by necessary implication, the authority is given.

Under our laws, no such authority is given to counties, either expressly or by necessary implication.

Very truly yours,

Attorney General

Assistant Attorney General
