LAW LIBRARY
ARIZONA ATTORNEY GENERAL

The Honorable Josephine F. Cauthorn
Arizona House of Representatives
State Capitol, House Wing
Phoenix, Arizona 85007

Dear Representative Cauthorn:

We are writing in response to your request of February 5, 1975 for our advice on the permitted and prohibited expenditures of federal revenue sharing moneys.

The uses for which federal revenue sharing moneys may be expended are enumerated specifically in the Fiscal Assistance to State and Local Governments Act §§ 103-104, 31 U.S.C. §§ 1222-1223 (1972). We have appended hereto a copy of those sections for handy reference.

In addition, the United States Department of the Treasury, which is responsible for administering the Act, has promulgated rules and regulations interpreting the Act with respect to permissible and prohibited uses of federal revenue sharing moneys in Treas. Reg. §§ 51.30-51.31 (1973). We also have appended hereto a copy of those sections for handy reference.

Hopefully, the enclosed material will provide answers to your questions. If they do not, we shall be happy to share our thoughts with you on particular expenditures, but with the understanding that our opinion of a particular expenditure is neither binding nor persuasive on the United States Department of the Treasury. The United States Department of the Treasury will rely on the opinion of the Chief Counsel of the Office of Revenue Sharing of the United States Department of the Treasury whose responsibility it is to interpret the Act.

Very truly yours,

BRUCE E. BABBITT
The Attorney General
