

Arizona Administrative Register / Secretary of State
Governor's Executive Orders/Proclamations

EXECUTIVE ORDERS, PROCLAMATIONS OF GENERAL APPLICABILITY, AND STATEMENTS
ISSUED BY THE GOVERNOR
PURSUANT TO A.R.S. § 41-1013(B)(3)

The Administrative Procedure Act (APA) requires the full-text publication of all Executive Orders and Proclamations of General Applicability issued by the Governor. In addition, the Register shall include each statement filed by the Governor in granting a commutation, pardon or reprieve, or stay or suspension of execution where a sentence of death is imposed. Spelling, grammar, and punctuation of these orders has been reproduced as submitted.

Editor's Note: The following Executive Orders originally published at 9 A.A.R. 1089 and 9 A.A.R. 1091, March 28, 2003 (Executive Orders 2003-01 and 2003-02) were published incorrectly. The Orders listed Governor Janet Napolitano and Secretary of State Janice K. Brewer in office when they should have listed Governor Jane Dee Hull and Secretary of State Betsy Bayless. The Orders are republished here as corrected.

EXECUTIVE ORDER 2003-01
ESTABLISHMENT OF AN ARIZONA GEOGRAPHIC INFORMATION COUNCIL
(SUPERSEDES EXECUTIVE ORDER 92-17)

ATTEST:

Betsey Bayless
SECRETARY OF STATE

EXECUTIVE ORDER 2003-02
ESTABLISHING THE GOVERNOR'S 9-11 MEMORIAL COMMISSION

WHEREAS, thousands of people lost their lives on September 11, 2001, in an attack on humanity; mothers, fathers, sons and daughters from a multitude of religious and cultural heritages and of every age and every race did not make it home to their loved ones on that tragic day; and

WHEREAS, this attack occurred on the land and in the sky at the World Trade Center in New York City, at the Pentagon in Washington, D.C., and in the air over Pennsylvania, and included victims from Arizona, as well as family members and friends of Arizonans; and

WHEREAS, firefighters, police officers, health care workers and first responders of all kinds demonstrated their endless dedication by charging head-on into danger, even though that danger was an inferno of unimaginable proportions; and

WHEREAS, Arizonans immediately responded to these shocking events by being part of the first rescue and recovery teams, waiting in line in 100-degree heat to donate blood, sending out clothing, supplies, money, and prayers, and performing endless acts of selflessness; and

WHEREAS, "9-11" and its aftermath have been a time when we have witnessed the worst of humanity followed by the best of humanity, a time filled with remembrance and resilience, a time responded to with courage over cowardice, service over selfishness, hope over fear, and love over hate—a time which we must ensure will never be forgotten;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jane Dee Hull, Governor of the State of Arizona, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Governor by the Arizona Constitution and the laws of the State, do hereby establish the Governor's 9-11 Memorial Commission to serve the purpose of planning, designing and guiding the establishment of a permanent Memorial in honor and memory of those who lost their lives in one of this nation's most horrific tragedies and to those who kept their spirits alive through unity and sacrifice, and to serve as a meaningful place for families to go to reflect upon these events for generations to come.

1. The members of the Commission shall be appointed by the Governor and shall serve at the pleasure of the Governor.
2. The Commission shall consist of no more than 35 people.
 - a. The Commission membership shall include a chairperson to be named by the Governor.
 - b. The Commission membership shall include at-large members representing government, first responders, victims, the business community, the general public and other diverse parties who share an interest in the development of this Memorial.
 - c. The members shall serve terms of two years from the date of this executive order and may be re-appointed by the Governor for additional two-year terms.
