New Teachers Arrive; Begin New Semester

By Rita Cooper

At the beginning of the second semester at Chilocco, two new teachers have joined the staff. They are both teaching in the field of Language Arts.

Mr. Angelo Jacovelli is from Kayenta, Ariz., and is teaching ninth and tenth grade English, and sociology. He has been with the Bureau of Indian Affairs 7 years; five with the Navajo and two with the Sioux.

Mrs. Carolyn Uccellini is originally from Oklahoma. Her husband Eugene is Dorm Manager of Wheeler Hall. Mrs. Uccellini last taught in Cherokee, N. C. She graduated from California State College in Fullerton, Calif. Her first impression of Chilocco is that the campus is very beautiful.

MEMORABLE NEW YEAR'S EVE PARTY

By Caroline Jenkins

For the students left on campus the New Year's Eve party was something to be remembered. The dance was held in the Student Union and lasted from 8:00 to 12:30. Music was provided by the Sessions from Ponca City.

What made the party seem special was the fact that it was semi-formal. Everyone came appropriately dressed for the occasion, and the students looked nice all dressed up.

The highlight of the evening was the announcement that the New Year had arrived. Firecrackers were promptly set off. After the dance, everyone went to the dining hall where breakfast was being served. One of the main servers was Mr. Daniel Sahmaunt, Superintendent. It was a nice way to start off the New Year.

NEW COURSES OFFERED STARTS NEXT TERM

By Mae Alice John

Mr. Angelo B. Jacovelli, a new teacher at Chilocco will be the instructor for sociology class which meets during the fifth hour. Mr. Jacovelli commented that Indian students should understand people in general by taking a high school sociology class.

Mrs. Carolyn Uccellini, also a new teacher, will teach the Indian history class. She has a major in anthropology. A new syllabus will be written for this class, involving Chilocco students and people from the local Indian community.

STUDENTS FINISH; LEAVE AT SEMESTER

By Eugene Purser

Jan. 8 to most students is the half-way mark for this is when the semester has come to a close. But for some students, it means they have finally completed their schooling.

There are seven seniors who expect to graduate at the semester. Congratulations are extended to Edward Azure, Marie Copperfield, William Jefferson, Bailey La Forge, Forrest Rickman, Vernon Tyler and Alex Yazzie.

The Indian School Journal is published bi-monthly by the Chilocco Indian School. Its purpose is to serve the student body as a newspaper where school events are recorded and news items are published. Its views reflect the student body in general, and does not reflect the administrative policies.

The price of the Journal is fifty-cents per volume, October to May inclusive.

Entered as second-class mail matter September 22, at the Post Office at Chilocco, Oklahoma, under the Act of March 3, 1879.
