TUSAYAN NATIONAL FOREST
ARIZONA

By the President of the United States of America

A Proclamation

WHEREAS it appears desirable that certain lands heretofore reserved and proclaimed as portions of the Coconino National Forest, together with certain other lands within the Territory of Arizona not heretofore reserved, which are in part covered with timber or undergrowth, should constitute the Tusayan National Forest;

Now, therefore, I, WILLIAM H. TAFT, President of the United States of America, by virtue of the power in me vested by the Act of Congress approved June fourth, eighteen hundred and ninety-seven, entitled "An Act Making appropriations for sundry civil expenses of the Government for the fiscal year ending June thirtieth, eighteen hundred and ninety-eight, and for other purposes," do proclaim that on and after July first, nineteen hundred and ten, the boundaries of the Tusayan National Forest shall be as shown on the diagram forming a part hereof.

The withdrawal made by this proclamation shall, as to all lands which are at this date legally appropriated under the public land laws or reserved for any public purpose, be subject to and shall not interfere with or defeat legal rights under such appropriation, nor prevent the use for such public purpose of lands so reserved, so long as such appropriation is legally maintained or such reservation remains in force.

It is not intended by this proclamation to modify the proclamations heretofore issued establishing the Grand Canyon National Game Preserve and the Grand Canyon National Monument, both of which include land embraced in the boundaries of the Tusayan National Forest.

This proclamation shall not prevent the settlement and entry of any lands heretofore opened to settlement and entry under the Act of Congress approved June eleventh, nineteen hundred and six, entitled "An Act to provide for the entry of Agricultural lands within forest reserves."

The eliminations from the Coconino National Forest shown on the two parts of the attached diagram which are not embraced in withdrawals for administrative sites for use in the management of the Tusayan National Forest, or in any other reservation or appropriation shall be restored to the public domain as provided in the proclamation of this date modifying the boundaries of the Coconino National Forest.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington this twenty-eighth day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and ten, and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and thirty-fourth.

[SEAL.]

WM H TAFT

By the President:
HUNTINGTON WILSON
Acting Secretary of State.
