SPEECH TOURNAMENT RESULTS: Congratulations to the members of Glendale's speech squad for their fine performance at the Matador Forensic Festival in Yuma on November 19, 20, 21. With 26 colleges and universities participating, the total performance of Glendale's speakers enabled the college to be ranked fourth in total sweepstakes points. Contributing significantly to this effort were the performances of Gary Billings, Jane Turner, Judy Wagoner, and Phyllis Miller, all of whom competed in the final elimination rounds. Jane Turner was awarded first place in the tournament in oral interpretation and Gary Billings was awarded first place in informative speaking.

THE YOUNG AMERICANS: On Saturday, December 12th, Glendale Community College will present its CEAS Cabaret Night featuring The Young Americans. The performance will be held in the GCC gymnasium at 8 p.m. General admission is $2 and GCC students will be admitted free of charge with I.D. card.

INSTRUCTIONAL MATERIALS CENTER-CIRCULATING ART PRINT COLLECTION NOW READY: Fifty-eight reproductions of famous paintings, framed, ready for hanging, and valued at approximately 1500.00, will go on open circulation beginning Wednesday, February 3, 1971. The reproductions are being displayed along the glass wall of the patio in the IMC. The prints are circulated on a first come first served basis. In order to make the prints available to as many students as possible, there will be no renewals, with a limit of one print per borrower. All prints circulating February 3 will be due March 24, 1971. Only students will be allowed to check out paintings on February 3 and 4; if any remain, these will become available to faculty and staff beginning February 5. Borrowers assume full responsibility for liability in the event of loss or damage, but there is no rental fee for borrowing. We are very proud to make fine art available for enjoyment in your own home.

ALL PROSPECTIVE GRADUATES: The deadline for filing application for A.A. degree is April 15. Application forms are available in the Admission Office. A fee of $7 is due at time application is returned.

FOUND: Fifteen ($15) has been received in the lost and found room. If you have lost this amount recently on this campus and can tell us when and where you lost it - it MIGHT BE YOURS.

PHOTOGRAMS: Two photography students, Mike Palmer and John Walters, have won first and second prize in the annual Phoenix Botanical Garden Photographic Exhibit. The Exhibit is now on display at the Gardens - located in Papago Park.

Thomas Mall will show a selection of photograms made by the first semester students of photography at Glendale. This exhibit will be held from March 8th to March 13th. A photogram is literally - writing with light - creating an abstract design without the aid of a camera. All of us in the photo department are exceedingly proud of the student effort displayed.
