To the Families of the Granite Mountain Hot Shots,

My name is Brian Chartrand. I am a musician in Phoenix, AZ. I have an initiative called Check 1-2 that designates a different local charity every month to which I give 90% of digital album sales of my album The Voce Project. The charity for February was Local First Arizona. I was going to send them their check when the tragedy at Yarnell Hill happened. Kimber Lanning, the director at Local First Arizona, and I both agreed that this money should go to the families of the Granite Mountain Hot Shots.

It's not much, but I hope it helps.

Our thoughts and prayers are with you.

All the best,

Brian Chartrand
