

Dear Family & Friends of the fallen men, Words cannot express our sorrow
or our thanks, for the dedication, honor and bravery of these men, these heroes. We will not forget. May you have peace in your memories and in knowing that your country recognizes and appreciates your loss.

Even the darkness will not be dark to you;
the night will shine like the day, for darkness is as light to you.

Psalm 139:12 (NIV1984)

There are times when God's plan isn't always crystal clear... but His path is always well lit.

Trusting He will lead you through this uncertain time in your life.

*In Him,
