Peace in those moments

And strength to sustain you

Jim & Carolyn Gray

With deepest sympathy and prayers to all of PFD & Hotshots.
We've just finished streaming the very moving & beautiful Memorial.
We have a firefighter son in Woodstock, GA, so we know the depth of meaning this had for you. We lived in Chino ✓ for 2 1/2 years near Marty and Tyler & Cole's family & my forever friend, Maggie (& John) Hendrickson. We had the privilege of having a Thanksgiving dinner prepared by Peggy at the Cole home a couple of years ago. This touches "close to home" for us.

Part of me wanted to be there & part of me was so glad I wasn't.

Our daughter, Colleen Wilson, our grand daughter, Liz, were volunteering at the high school the past week. Libby Reemian is Colleen's sister in law.

The Memorial was truly a e gift in so many ways. We grieve with all of you. Thank you for sharing so beautifully these unforgettable men. And please let Brandon know how very powerful his presence was at the Memorial. Truly, God has saved him for a reason. He will be in our prayers for strength to carry on in his own heroic way. We are so proud of him.

We send our love + our prayers to all of you - hugs - even - if only we could touch you, as you all have touched us.

God bless you all - forever!
