

DESTINY

Human Destiny and the Novels of Mexico

Professor Cecil Robinson, English Department, University of Arizona, will lead four book discussions on Saturday mornings, 9-10, beginning October 18. Himmel Park Branch Library, 1035 N. Treat Ave. Limited Enrollment. Register at Himmel Branch.

All Sonoran Heritage tours and programs are free. Sonoran Heritage is a National Endowment for the Humanities Learning Library program at the Tucson Public Library.

Destiny and the Land/Carpool Tours

QUIBURI AND GUEVAVI/KINO VISITA AND MISSION
Saturday, October 18, 8-4:30
Co-sponsored by Southwest Mission Research Center

PISINIMO VILLAGE/PAPAGO RESERVATION
Saturday, October 25, 8-4:30
Co-sponsored by Pisinimo Human Development Corporation

SNAKETOWN AND CASA GRANDE RUINS
Saturday, November 8, 8-3:30
Co-sponsored by Arizona-Sonora Desert Museum

Registration for tours is limited. Call Sonoran Heritage for reservations. 791-4391.

The Future

ARMCHAIR TOUR OF ARCOSANTI
Professor Robert E. McConnell, F.A.I.A., will talk about Paolo Soleri's "arcology" in Arizona. Wednesday, October 15, 7:30 P.M. Nanini Branch Library, 7300 N. Shannon Rd.

EL CENTRO DE TUCSON WALKING TOUR
Members of the City of Tucson Planning Department will guide a tour through neighborhoods included in downtown revitalization. Saturday, November 15, 10-2. Registration limited. Call Sonoran Heritage, 791-4391.

UTOPIAS
Children will present their ideas and drawings for cities in tomorrow's world. Thursday, November 20, 7:30 P.M. Wilmot Branch Library, 530 N. Wilmot Rd.

Design by Margo Burwell