

Sonoran Heritage. A National Endowment for the Humanities Learning Library Program at the Tucson Public Library.

Sonoran Heritage

A Learning Library Program

Funded by the National Endowment for the Humanities at the Tucson Public Library

January 1978 through December 1980

An opportunity to know more about where we live and how we got here.

Courses and field trips; public events;
materials for individual or group study; video cassettes;
and a special Sonoran Heritage staff prepared to answer your questions.

FIRST YEAR: Courses on community; architecture; food gathering and growing; food preparation and production; cowboys and cattle; tools and technology. Events, including an afternoon at the Desert Museum;
an architectural walking tour of downtown Tucson;
a cowboy myth film series; and a community festival of food and music.

SECOND YEAR: Courses and events on "Family," "Play," and "Costume."

THIRD YEAR: Courses and events on "Power," "Destiny," and "Genius."

Look for the Sonoran Heritage information center at your branch library. Or call the Sonoran Heritage/NEH office: 791-4391. Or write Project Director Kathleen R.
Dannreuther, Tucson Public Library, Box 27470, Tucson, Arizona 85726.